What better way to kick off the 10th birthday celebrations than to announce the legendary Fatboy Slim as the first act to play Snowbombing 2009? Yes, the king of the big beats and one of the biggest DJs in the world, Norman Cook, is set to headline the week-long music, ski and snow party which kicks off on Sunday 29th March and runs through to Saturday 4th April in the idyllic setting of Mayrhofen, Austria. Ticket and accommodation packages are on sale now for this unmissable event with everything from quaint B&Bs to plush 4* hotels on offer - online booking is available now via www.snowbombing.com.

Notorious for setting the party alight, Fatboy Slim will be bringing his classic sounds to the 10th birthday party, mixing up meaty slabs of big beats and cut-up samples for the thousands of skiers, boarders and ravers 2000 metres up the Alps taking après ski to an entirely new level! With an Ivor Novello Award for his 'outstanding contribution to British music' under his belt along with a fistful of top ten hits - all included on his 'Why Try Harder' Greatest Hits album - Fatboy Slim has deservedly earned his place as the most in-demand DJ on the planet.

With 9 Snowbombing events already in the bag, here's a quick reminder of what's on offer: 7 days of musical misbehaviour and snow-capped adventures in the valley of Mayrhofen with some of the biggest names in music providing a sizzling soundtrack to the mayhem. From iconic igloo parties at the top of the mountains in the middle of the night with 300 like minded ravers, to the back country party in the forgotten valley where a 200 year old wooden farmstead plays host to a traditional and unforgettable night of Austrian food, drink and games, Snowbombing has re-written the rules of alpine partying.

We've come a long long way baby...and there's still loads more to come! Watch out for more line-up announcements shortly...
