Schnapps the Pitch Up!

Forget your starter for 10... How about a Firestarter for '11? We can exclusively reveal that our biggest EVER headline act for Snowbombing 2011 will be none other than... THE PRODIGY.

Having stood, lip curled on the convergence of dance and rock for two decades, Liam, Keith and Maxim are a natural choice to top our bill. Their perfectly-poisonous fusion of punk, rave, dub, techno, drum & bass and no-nonsense, fire-starting, voodoo rock'n'roll will adrenaline the Alps and 'take your brain to another dimension...' Blimey, even our hearts are beating faster just thinking about their appearance in the forest!

So '...pay close attention' and safeguard your bed now! Only £100 deposit (and nothing else to pay until 1st March!).

Everybody in the House

Prodigy will sit at the top of a mountain of talent. Snowbombing 2011 will carry on where SB10 left off, with another awesome avalanche of live acts and DJ's. We'll be embracing all you're your fave genres? Whilst continuing to fly the flag for yodeling of course.

Expect to be gradually flabbergasted over the coming months, as we assemble a line-up which will be the LARGEST EVER SEEN in an alpine resort.

The Festival Awards

The tent has been aired, your wellies are back under the stairs and a long forgotten mushy banana is starting to grow white fur in the bottom of your rucksack; all of which means, the festival season is over for another summer! Now comes the time of reckoning: The UK Festival Awards are on the horizon and again we've been nominated for not one but two awards: BEST OVERSEAS FESTIVAL & BEST EUROPEAN FESTIVAL!

Now we reckon that it's high time our high times were rewarded with a gong. If you agree, CAST YOUR VOTE FOR SNOWBOMBING HERE. Best Overseas Festival runs from Sept 15th - Oct 4th. European voting runs 13 October- 1 December. Come on - propel us onto the shortlist and we'll consider sending everyone who votes for us a brown envelope (or if you're reading this Naomi, a few dirty stones!) Voting is open NOW!

Best Beds

Summer is over... It's time to clean the mud off your tents and look forward to a life of luxury as you prepare for the spectacular en suite you have booked yourself for Snowbombing. As predicted, all of our best beds are being snapped up quicker than Boris's new London Bike Scheme, but if you haven't booked yet there are still plenty of wonderful hotels out there to get your hands on. From 4* superior luxury to pocket friendly pensions & apartments. Remember it's only a £100 deposit per person, with nothing to pay until 6 weeks to departure, so don't delay: Book Now!
