THE ARCTIC HOTEL in the IGLOO VILLAGE

Monday 31st March - Sunday 6th April 2008 - www.snowbombing.com

After the inordinate success of last year's Arctic Disco those clever chaps at Snowbombing have gone and extended the experience and created the ultimate igloo adventure that will enable you to spend an entire night in the middle of the mountains in the ARCTIC HOTEL, dance beneath the stars and revel in one of the most extraordinary places on the planet with your nearest and dearest.

Last year saw the igloo party and white lounge become legendary over night and this year they return with an even more impressive programme. The Igloo Village comprises a bar and accommodation complex built entirely from snow and is situated on a plateau 2000 metres above sea level. By day (from 4:30pm) the main igloo offers a laid-back lounge vibe replete with smooth musical grooves and a wide-ranging selection of delicious cocktails and BBQ snacks. As you bask in the sunshine in one of the most stunning settings on earth this promises to be one of the most magical afternoons of your life.

By night the mountains come alive with a different sound of music as the main igloo is transformed into the arctic disco and beats reign supreme. Intimate and exclusive the 300 people who make it up the mountain are in for the duration creating an electric and unparalleled atmosphere with a top DJ line up and an extraordinary mountain top experience.

New for the 2008 and upping the ante even further comes THE ARCTIC HOTEL. The popular party-on-the-plateau venue, The Arctic Disco now offers overnight stays in some superb snowy sleepover suites! Enjoy a romantic meal, sip drinks as the stars come out, and soak away your cares together in a heated mountain-top Jacuzzi, before snuggling up and having fun in the fur...blankets. Then you awake to an alpine sunrise and eat a delicious breakfast, prior to strapping on your board and making first tracks on the virgin piste.

With ten Igloo suites available per night and each igloo snugly accommodating 5 people this is an opportunity to create yet another truly treasured Snowbombing memory to add to the many others you will leave the resort with.

It's a once in a lifetime experience for the lucky few who get there first!
